

The Home Of Online
Turkish Learning

A1 SYLLABUS

Week 1	Alphabet; introducing yourself; introduction dialogue; forming basic sentences/questions (e.g. I am a student, I am from London, what is this/that?, who is this?).
Week 2	Country, language and nationality names; the structure of there is/there is not; question suffix; plural suffix; numbers.
Week 3	Introducing family; asking questions using possessive suffixes (e.g. do you have siblings?).
Week 4	Talking about daily life using the present continuous tense.
Week 5	Talking about the location of objects, people and buildings using the locative and the ablative cases (e.g. at school, from school).
Week 6	Talking about past events using the past tense suffix with appropriate adverbs.
Week 7	Describing activities – what you are doing today, what you did last weekend; accusative and instrumental suffixes.
Week 8	Shopping for food and clothes; using appropriate phrases; asking questions (e.g. how much/how many?).
Week 9	Describing future plans; future tense and related adverbs. –DAn önce and –DAn sonra structures (before and after).
Week 10	Talking about the weather; months; seasons; other related vocabulary.
Week 11	Describing where a place or object is using prepositions (e.g. in the bag, on the table, etc.).
Week 12	Talking about your job and profession names; definite noun phrases (genitive and possessive suffixes).
Week 13	Body parts; having a dialogue with a doctor.
Week 14	Comparing objects, people, etc. by using comparative and superlative structures.
Week 15	Revision.